

PRAGUE CUISINE

A SELECTION OF CULINARY EXPERIENCES IN THE CITY OF SPIRES

GUIDEBOOK

DOMINIC JAMES

SAND DUNE

Prague Cuisine is a culinary journey of discovery. From urban chic to fine dining, Dominic James shares his culinary experiences and discoveries, revealing a diverse selection of restaurants, cafés, bistros and confectioners in and around a city rich in history and tradition. With its beautiful collection of photographs and descriptive legends, this treasure trove of culinary destinations will create for gourmets and urban foodies alike a desire to explore and sample the atmosphere of these gastronomical experiences.

Featuring introductions from award winning chefs, Prague Cuisine showcases the capital's finest offerings, the history of places and people and illustrates how the gastronomy scene has developed and evolved over the past few years.

DOMINIC JAMES

VINOGRAF WINE BAR

SUNDAY CLOSED

Senovážné nám. 23, 110 00 Prague 1, Nové Město
P. +420 214 214 681 – www.vinograf.cz

Vinograf is revolutionising Prague wine bars. Guests come regularly for the great Czech and foreign wines, delicious food, relaxed atmosphere and friendly staff who know as much about wine as anyone. The focus is on lesser-known Czech and Moravian winemakers, but the menu includes many varieties, along with fantastic cheeses and hot and cold dishes. The team at Vinograf puts each of its wines through a selection process before they stock them, holding tastings among all the employees. That's why the team knows their wines so well. They regularly host events, seminars, and tastings with winemakers, and they also have an excellent weekend brunch. Don't miss the other Vinografts on Mišeňská in Malá Strana and Radlická, Anděl.

MALEŠICKÝ MIKROPIVOVAR

EVERY DAY

Malešická 126/50, 108 00 Prague 10, Malešice
P. +420 727 803 872 – www.malesickymikropivovar.cz

Malešický mikropivovar is 15 minutes outside the centre and well worth the trip to its village setting. For excellent craft beers, classic Czech cuisine and a familyfriendly atmosphere it can't be beat. Although this brew-pub features modern equipment like shiny golden brewing vats, the ambience harkens back to another time when beer and meals were enjoyed with friends and family. Malešický mikropivovar has two of its own delicious microbrews on tap as well as offerings from Czech and foreign breweries. You'll find a menu of Czech dishes that go great with beer, including some on the lighter side. The pub also has regular events, like pig roasts, that give a taste of homely traditional Czech gastronomic culture.

KULAŤÁK PILSNER URQUELL ORIGINAL RESTAURANT

EVERY DAY

Vítězné náměstí 820/12, 160 00 Prague 6, Bubeneč
P. +420 773 973 037 – www.kulatak.cz

Kulaťák is changing the way locals think about the Czech pub experience, one tasty dish at a time. One of the Czech Republic's first gastropubs, serving amazing wines, and fresh Pilsner Urquell from the tank, Kulaťák also has an impressive menu of Czech-inspired cuisine. This place is packed every night of the week, but there's always room for one more. No wonder it's popular: they have a lively pub atmosphere, and gourmet food. Some of the mouth-watering meals you can look forward to include confit of pork belly served with sausage, traditional beef tartare, savoury confit of goose leg, the perfect Pilsner goulash, incredibly succulent fish, and other specialities. The ambience will charm you, and the food will amaze you.

RESTAURACE NA KŘÍŽOVATCE

EVERY DAY

Vinohradská 1612/149, 130 00 Prague 3, Žižkov
P. +420 722 673 154 – www.nakrizovatce.com

On a bustling intersection in Vinohrady, Restaurace Na Křížovatce is a classic Czech pub with a few interesting twists. It's a great place to unwind with friends and family. In fact, you'll always feel like family when you stop in. The service is friendly and the atmosphere is relaxed. Sit on the terrace, which is perfect for people watching, and heated year-round. Or, you can watch sports inside. The Pilsner Urquell is served from the tank, so it's always crisp, but there are seven other Czech beers as well. The food goes great with beer, like the pepper steak with poached egg, or their special potato pancake, with a 25-year tradition. It's rare to find a Czech restaurant with so much soul.

